ASSASSIN!

A Russian Shoots H. C. Frick.

He Enters the Office and Fires Three Shots at Him--All Take Effect.

HE WAS ARRESTED.

The Would-be Murderer Refuses to Talk--Great Excitement--The Wounds Serious.

Special to the Democrat.

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 23.—A turmoil of excitement was created in this city at noon to-day when the news spread that H. C. Frick, the superintendent of the Carnegie Steel company, had been shot in his office by an assassin. Such an occurrence on the heels of the terrible event at Homestead and the prominent part that Frick took in the matter only added to the excited interest in the case.

It seems at noon while Chairman Frick was seated in his office shortly before going to dinner, a stranger presented himself and asked to see Mr. Frick. He was shown into the office, as nothing strange was noticed about the fellow.

He entered into a conversation with Mr. Frick and no one paid any attention to him until a moment later, a pistol shot rang out. No one was in the private office at the time and Mr. Frick, though bleeding from a bad wound in the neck, staggered to a window and attempted to raise it and cry for aid. Failing in this, he turned and grappled his assailant. The fellow struggled with him and succeeded in placing the still smoking pistol to Mr. Frick's back and fired two more shots. Both bullets entered slightly above the left hip.

Office employees now came to the aid of Mr. Frick and succeeded in disarming the stranger before he could shoot again.

The man was at once placed under arrest and found to be a young Russian. He absolutely refused to talk and would not give his name. He is a typical nihilist and just such a man as has made the life of Russia's czar a hideous nightmare. He is just such a man who thinks that he is immortalizing himself and the theories he holds by sacrificing his life to enforce them.

Frick's injuries are extremely serious and perhaps will prove fatal. He is one of the most thoroughly detested men in the United States by the Amalgamated association. He has successfully fought three big labor strikes and is a most relentless and inveterate enemy of organized labor.

Likes the Ticket.

Leslie Marmaduke, while down from Sweet Springs to-day, dropped in on the DEMOCRAT with one of his pleasant chats. Mr. Marmaduke was highly pleased with the nominations.

Broke His Nose.

Foreman Livers, brother-in-law of City Attorney Cashman, in charge of the work on the Sacred Heart church met with a rather laughable but painful accident yesterday.

He was engaged with several others in prying up a heavy stone when the hold of one of the men slipped and the rebounding fist struck Mr. Livers on the nose, dislocating it.

Dr. W. J. Ferguson set the injured member and Mr. Livers has quit sneezing for a time.

HO FOR FLATCREEK!

Some Twenty Citizens Trolling the Classic Stream To-day.

A party numbering about twenty left for the classic Flat creek this morning on a fishing expedition.

Among the number were Hanley Pilkington, Charles and Semore Williams, Ralph Eastey, David Ramsey and Lee Looney.

The boys were well equipped with all the modern tackle used for capturing the finny tribe. It is said Hanley Pilkington took along a copy of Walton's Angler and will make practical experiments with certain rules set down by the old fisherman.

The boys expect to get home in time to attend Sunday school.

TURN OUT TO-NIGHT.

Let Sedalia Establish a Glass Factory--A Big Thing.

For several days there has been a movement on foot that had for its purpose the organizing of a company with a capital of $50,000 to establish a glass factory to manufacture all kinds of glassware, both green and amber goods, such as all kinds of bottles, fruit jars, table glassware and window and plate glass.

Mr. J. Kitson, of St. Louis, a gentleman of much experience in the glass-making business is here to place the matter before the people. He has found an immense quantity of sand near the city which is said to be much superior to the famous deposits near Crystal City, Mo.

At 8 o'clock this evening an important meeting will be held in the Commercial club room to take action on the matter. Everybody is urgently requested to attend.

IT IS UNTRUE.

The Ohio Street Barber Did Not Desert His Wife and Skip the Town.

An article in a morning print stated that an Ohio street barber had left his wife, and further intimated some very damaging things.

The gentleman referred to called at the DEMOCRAT office this afternoon and denied the story, saying that he had been absent from the city four days, but left under the same circumstances that anyone would who had business outside of town. He is still living with his wife and expects to continue so.

The reckless printing of such stuff can not be too strongly condemned, as a man's good reputation and honor are of more value to him in this country than money. Newspapers are supposed to print the news, but they should also print facts.

SEDALIA MINER INSTITUTE.

Articles of Association Filed in the Recorder's Office to-day--Officers Elected.

Articles of association were filed in the recorder's office to-day by the Miner Symptomatic Gold Cure company.

The capital stock is $3,000. Following are the share holders: C. B. Hackney, F. A. Sampson, J. C. and G. C. McLaughlin, John Walmsley & Co., F. W. Shultz, Baldwin and Stratton, J. G. White, J. W. Goodwin, C. H. Streit and Geo. E. Dugan.

The directors are: C. B. Hackney, F. A. Sampson, J. C. McLaughlin, John Walmsley and J. G. White.

Died.

Effie, the 7-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bennett, died seven miles southeast of Sedalia at 2 o'clock this morning. Funeral took place this afternoon at 4 o'clock at Flat Creek cemetery.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Eldridge, living at 910 East Fifth street, died last night. Remains will be shipped to Butler for interment.

An Elegant Sign.

Peter Pehl had one of the finest signs put up over his restaurant to-day, that has ever been put up in the city. It bears the inscription "Pehl's Fulton Market Restaurant" in gilt letters on a black background.

A Work-Off Race.

The trainers of "Bremer," "Winston" and "J. C. B." sent the horses through a lively race at the track this afternoon. Quite a number went out to see the fun.

Track Finished.

The electric line will be running to the park via Sixteenth street by to-night or Monday night, so Judge Metsker said this afternoon.

Lots of Talk by the Lawyers.

The Messerly-Ferrell felonious assault case has occupied Judge Levens' court all day.

Call at Raiffeisen's opera house bar, the coolest place in the city. No annoyance by fans. The Faust beer drawn out of a cool ice box. Don't forget the place, 113 East Second street.

DATE CHANGED.

Time of Opening the State Democratic Campaign--Committee Meets in St. Louis Tuesday.

It is officially given out that the date for opening the state democratic campaign in this city has been postponed.

This action on the part of the local executive committee resulted from the inability on the part of the state central committee to co-operate on that date, together with the fact that the distinguished speakers engaged for the occasion will hardly be disengaged so early.

"Without the help of these two factors," said Chairman Longan, of the county central committee to a DEMOCRAT reporter, "the opening of the campaign would be like the play of Hamlet, with the chief character left out."

"There is another point to be contended," said he. "The fact that we are right on the heels of the fair. This reason together with the two before mentioned, makes the change wise."

Mr. Heard has written that neither Bourke Cochrane, Vorhees, W. C. P. Breckenridge, nor W. L. Wilson can possibly absent themselves from official duties on the date originally set, though he says these men will come west later on.

The state central committee will meet in St. Louis next Tuesday when the new date for opening the campaign will be announced. This, in all probability, will be somewhere in the early part of September.

In addition to the distinguished statesmen mentioned above, Con-might well be envied by the far-famed western cowboys.

When placed in a delivery wagon, however, they are at once out of place. They are the most reckless drivers to be found, and narrow escapes from serious collisions are of daily occurrence.

Removed.

X. H. Bothwell has removed the office of the Midland Loan and Saving company to the old postoffice, where he can be found in the future. The new office is fitted up with new furniture and has a very cosy appearance and is easy of access.

A Mad Dog In Sedalia.

Deputy Constable Tom Carter killed a mad dog this morning near Capt. Gold's residence at Third and Osage. The dog had fallen to the ground and was writhing and foaming at the mouth when a bullet from the officer's pistol put an end to the danger.

The Female Ball Players.

The young ladies base ball club, of Denver, will play on the new diamond at Electric springs, Warrensburg, to-morrow and next day. The girls are said to be hard bitters and put up a good game.

To True Sportsmen.

Notwithstanding the law upon the matter, a DEMOCRAT reporter has it upon good authority that seining in Flat creek has become quite frequent of late. To one who has ever cast his line in this stream, the lack of good game fish has been very manifest, though the reason could never be clearly understood. The wholesale catching of fish by

BREAKS THE RECORD.

Sedalia Will Have the Finest Assembly of Horses Ever Seen in the State.

A. L. Burr has returned from Aurora and Kankakee, Illinois, where he attended the trotting races. While away he met horsemen at both places who were eager and anxious to enter their horses in the races at the great kite track. The programme was in itself a sufficient recommendation and inducement. Secretary Burr found many horsemen at Aurora and Kankakee who were going to enter the best horses of their stables in the purse races, the stake races being already closed.

There will be the largest number of good horses at the Sedalia races that were ever gotten together in the state.

Col. John M. Matheny, of Greenwood, Neb., Adds This Testimonial for the Success of the Miner Institute

Col. John M. Matheny, of Greenwood, Nebraska, and an old slave to the whiskey trust adds the following testimonial in favor of the Miner Institute.

As I am about to sever my connection with this Institute I must add my testimony of the good I have received here. I came to this Institute with grave doubts still lingering about me in reference to its curative powers. Still, those that I had all confidence in, insisted that it would do me good, so I thought I would hear to their entreaties.

I had tried all other remedies, such as the blue ribbon, red ribbon, Sons of Temperance, joined the church and thought some of them would certainly do me good, but they were only temporary relief.

I am thankful to God that there is now a remedy made known for everybody that is subject to this, worst of all diseases, drinkers of alcohol, and I believe now that it is contracted by some and hereditary in others. I contracted the drink habit while in the army. It was said that whiskey would nerve you to the conflict, and I found it did. To fill up until you were not yourself, and you were ready to face the devil and his cohorts.

I tried it at Champion Hill, Stone River, Hoover's Gap, Buzzard Roost, Chickamauga, Kingston, Altoona Pass, siege of Atlanta and several other occasions. Here is where I contracted this obnoxious habit, but I never thought that I was contracting a disease that I could not dislodge at anytime, that I might throw out my skirmishers and do this, but I found that when I came to try it with all the force I had, a division strong and with a bold assault I could not do it.

I feel to-night that it is my duty, as I now have a clear mind and a steady nerve, to once more launch out and do something, not for my self alone, but for others.

Three weeks is but a drop in the bucket when I think how happy I can make home once more. I can see my dear wife and family as I knew them in my sober days. They will not only want to kill the fatted calf, but will slay all the chickens and pigs on the place and there will go up as one voice a hallelujah, Amen.

SEDALIA must have a convention hall.

CHOLERA is steadily invading Russia.

That new hotel is one of Sedalia needs if she is to become a convention town.

SEDALIA can soon become a manufacturing town if her citizens will work in that direction.

The grand old democracy of Missouri will stand a Stone wall, strong to resist the assaults of the enemy.

When people take contracts to pave a street in a certain time they should know where the material is coming from.

AFTER defeating such men as Dalton, Gibson, Yeaman and Claycomb, Stone need have no fears of William Warner.

The kick that will be heard if Third street is not completed according to contract will be remembered a long time.

The mugwump Kansas City Star is supporting the republican local ticket, while still professing friendship for Cleveland.

KEEP the matter of building good roads at the front and ask all candidates for legislative honors what they think about it.

Gov. PATTERSON has very politely and very properly impressed upon the Pennsylvania militia that they are subordinate to the civil authorities.

OUR republican friends are making extensive preparations for a big display on the 27th, and the prospects are most flattering for an immense turnout.

CONGRESS is getting ready to adjourn before the weather grows any hotter. Several of the members, however, who voted against the free silver coinage bill will find their own districts about the hottest places on earth just now.

GEN. GUITAR is quoted as saying that with a campaign fund of $300,000 the state of Missouri can be carried by the republican party. The proposition for such a corruption fund is an insult to the people of the state.

DOWN in the gloriously republican county of Taney outlaws have triumphed and the Bald Knobbers who murdered Deputy Sheriff Williams have been set free. The attorneys for the prosecution felt that judge and jury were partial to the prisoners and that conviction was impossible.

HOOSIERS AFTER HARRISON.

Harrison's managers all over the country are in a disturbed state of mind, says the Detroit Free-Press, but in Indiana they are positively panic stricken. It will be remembered that Millionaire McDonald, the electric light man of Fort Wayne, Ind., headed a big Blaine crowd from the Hoosier state, who made a gallant fight for the Plumed Knight at Minneapolis, contending to the very end that Harrison could never carry his own state. They went home disgusted and seem bent on making good their doleful prophecy. McDonald and his friend, ex-Congressman J. B. White, have led a revolt, and the most frantic efforts of the president's friends have failed to check its course.

Harry C. Hanna, a prominent lawyer and influential Blaine republican, has resigned his membership of the state central committee because he cannot conscientiously support Harrison. Chairman Gaudy, chairman of that committee went post haste to the seat of treason to patch up peace, but his presence only added fuel to the flames and a majority of the Allen county republican committee, including its chairman, resigned. The feeling against Harrison is so strong at Fort Wayne that the business and professional element say they will ostracize anyone accepting the county chairmanship thus made vacant.

White, who served in the Fiftieth congress as a republican, will stump the state for Cleveland, and the German vote, which before supported Harrison, is largely against him. The disappointed Blaine men openly declare they will get even with Harrison for his gag-law methods at Minneapolis, by electing the republican state ticket and beating the national ticket.

Here is another ugly nail for the president's political coffin. He cannot afford to lose Indiana, yet it seems impossible for him to carry it. Dudley is not to manipulate the blocks this year, the secret ballot checks the course of corruption, Harrison has made enemies, the Blaineites are after him and Hoosierdom is in the hands of his foes.

THE MAIN ISSUE.

It is not the tariff, or free silver, or pensions, or even the candidates, that is to be the supreme issue of the campaign, remarks the Columbia Herald. It will be the force bill. It will be whether the constitution is to be overridden, the authority of the states set at defiance and the federal government control the election in the various states through an armed constabulary. In other words, the issue will be, shall the republican party keep itself in power at the point of the bayonet, and at the sacrifice of the liberties of the people?

This is what the republican platform practically says and it is what republican success plainly means. The force bill has been Mr. Harrison's pet measure. It has been recommended by him more than once to congress, and at one time mainly through his influence it came near becoming a law.

The democratic party must and will win if it makes this the prominent issue. It is something that every voter can understand, and, as it strikes at a vital principle of self-government, it calls for prompt and vigorous resentment. Let it be pushed to the front and the democracy will march to certain victory.

ORGANIZE AT ONCE.

When men are members of a political party it is to be taken for granted that they are anxious for the success of the principles of that party.

The success of political principles in this country can only be secured through the election to public office of men who believe in such principles.

Thus only can political doctrines be crystalized into laws.

Success at the ballot box in this age requires organization.

The history of the democratic club in Sedalia's late municipal contest speaks volumes of the value of such organizations.

But it is not sufficient to organize in Sedalia alone.

There is similar work needed in every township in the state, and it is the especial work of Pettis county democrats to see that that work is not neglected at home.

The matter of organization has been talked of for months. Now the time for action has come.

Every day of delay may mean a loss of votes and a reduction in the size of the party majority.

Too much delay may mean the loss of a portion of the local ticket.

The fact may not be pleasant for some democrats to consider, but it is a possibility that sensible men must face.

A hurrah campaign is all right if backed by thorough intelligent action.

But with a party majority of 500 or 600 in a county as large as Pettis there is always a possibility of the loss of a portion of the ticket unless every point of attack is guarded.

This work cannot be wholly done by the candidates, the public speakers and the press.

It can be done by a live, energetic, enthusiastic organization in every township, and with such an organization a good round majority for the whole ticket can be secured.

Now let us all get to work. Let the county committee and the Sedalia club go to work, and let the rally in this city see every Pettis county democrat in line with a badge on his breast.

Why wouldn't it be a good plan, asks the Republic, to levy a poll tax of, say 5 cents a head, on the 62,000,000 people of this country and take the $3,100,000 per year thus produced, without hardship to anybody, and present it to some man like Carnegie, who would contract in advance to give, say, $500,000 a year for the endowment of free libraries, spend, say, 50,000 a year in writing and lecturing on the glories of American freedom and use the remaining $2,250,000 per year in "living like a lord" and building up an enormous fortune? This would be a permanent object lesson to the "downtrodden masses of the old world," showing them what can be accomplished by industry, economy and taxation for private benefit in the United States.

THINGS are a little mixed up politically in Kansas City, where the editor of the Mail, one of the republican organs, is the people's party candidate for state senator. In explanation the Mail very naively says: "It is due to the republican readers of the Mail to state that one of its editors is a member of the people's party and takes occasion to write complimentary things about its platform and candidates. The proprietor of the Mail has a delicacy about interfering with the copy of the associate editor."

THE DEMOCRAT learns that several of the strong republican counties in the eastern part of the state are in hot competition as to which shall send the largest delegation to the republican rally here on the 27th. From present appearances it will be the largest crowd ever assembled in the Queen City, and will only be surpassed by the democratic demonstration.

MAJ. HARVEY W. SALMON will be chairman of the democratic state committee, says the Mexico Intelligencer. Maj. Salmon will bring both experience and sagacity to the discharge of his important duties. He is admirably equipped for the work and will have the loyal support of every member of the committee.

SWEATING humanity in this part of the country may console itself with the reflection that this hot weather is the making of a corn crop and with it a season of activity in all branches of business in Central Missouri next fall and winter.

THE state democratic campaign will be opened in Sedalia August 10th, says the Pilot Grove Herald. It will be a giant mass meeting. Some of America's ablest orators will be there in the interest of democracy. It will be the beginning of a glorious campaign.

The grand ovation given Hon. W. J. Stone on his return to his home in Nevada, is but the first of many such receptions that await him in all parts of the state. The Dalton men, the Gibson men, the Yeaman men, the Claycomb men are all Stone men now.

If Judge Sheffield is right, and Warner not a citizen, his candidacy is the grandest exhibition of gall since he held the office of prosecuting attorney by virtue of the conflagration so opportunely started by "Count" Rodman.

THE democratic ticket is made. Now let the party be thoroughly organized in every township in the state to the end that the majority may be made large enough to forever settle the silly claim that Missouri is a doubtful state.

Why Women Do Not Vote.

Do you know, my positive woman, why women do not vote? writes Edward W. Bok in "At Home with the Editor," in the August Ladies' Home Journal. It is because the vast and overwhelming majority of women in this country do not want the ballot, have absolutely no desire for it, and do not waste a moment of their time thinking about it. Do you know why these women do not care to "broaden" their minds by reading Ibsen? It is because they think they sweeten their lives by reading Mawthorne and Thackeray and Longfellow and Walter Scott and Charles Dickens and the great mass of living writers whom you believe simply burden the earth with their presence. Do you know why these women will not don the ridiculous "reform" garments which you unblushingly flaunt before audiences of American girlhood? It is because they prefer to be womanly, and dress tastefully and prettily as God intended woman should dress.

Do you know why these women will not go to club meetings? It is because they have a little club in their own homes, and the members of it are of their own flesh and blood, with which God has sanctioned and beautified their lives. Do you know why they turn with disgust from your paintings about "the rights of our sex"? Because their husbands give them every right of love and kindness they want.

Surrendering at Discretion

From the Chicago Tribune.

"Tommy, how did you get the back of your neck all sunburnt?" "Pull'n' weeds in the garden."

"But your hair is all wet my son."

"That's serp'tation."

Your vest is on wrong side out too."

"Put it on that way a-purpose."

And how does it happen, Tommy dear that you got Jakey Du Bois's trousers on?"

(After a long pause) "Mother I cannot tell a lie. I've been a-swimmin'."

Struck Coal.

For two or three weeks work has been pushed vigorously in the Collins coal mine. At a depth of 235 feet a three foot vein has been found. Some of it has been taken out and seems to be very good coal. Two hundred and thirty feet below the surface an eight foot stratum of fire clay was found and some of this has been shipped to Mexico to be tested. —Moberly Democrat.

This is another example of the fact that everything comes to him who waits and—works. Capt. Collins is doubtless now happy.

They Will Be Mined.

From the New York World.

A sycophantic and cranky but duly recognized organ of the President remarks that Mr. Blaine is not missed in Washington, and that people no longer talk about him. If true this would only show the cold-blooded ingratitude of the official class. But a good many of Mr. Blaine's friends will be missed at the polls on election day.

All the delicacies of the season at Peter Pehl's Fulton restaurant.

The Crum Case.

From the Boston Globe.

That episode of the Charleston postmastership, wherein the president designed to bestow a responsible position upon a wholly incompetent person, simply on account of supposed "convention services," puts Mr. Harrison in an unenviable light, indeed. The Crum case will not soon be forgotten.

Put Up and Quit Squawling.

A NICKLE REWARD

What Was Offered a Little Boy for Returning a Well Filled Purse.

From the Kansas City Journal.

On Wednesday Dr. Bancroft took the 200 pupils of the Tabernacle Sunday schools over to Troots park for a holiday and picnic. While roaming around through the park a little fellow from out at London Heights found a great big purse. No one saw him pick it up and the little fellow's fingers trembled nervously as he opened it and peered in, and saw, besides a lot of papers, a mass of gold and silver coins and new bank bills.

He tucked the books carefully away and started off to look up Dr. Bancroft, and when he found that gentleman he also found a large, well dressed lady and a park policeman telling of the loss and asking that he notify the little folks that a big reward would be paid for its safe return. The little fellow, upon learning who the lady was, marched up to her and handed over the purse with everything safe inside. The lady was apparently so overjoyed that she at once forgot the promise of a big reward. She carefully counted the contents of the purse and then magnanimously handed the boy a nickel.

The little fellow was brave enough to decline the pittance, and without so much as thanking the lady, the lady walked away. The contents of the purse amounted to $1.00.

The ingratitude indicated by the lady will furnish a theme for Dr. Bancroft's next sermon on "Selfishness."

A Narrow Escape.

One day last week Mrs. Meredith, of Green Ridge, had occasion to move a water barrel in her yard, and in doing so felt something heavy attached to her apron. Upon looking down she was horrified to find a medium sized rattlesnake attached thereto and striking at it. She had presence of mind enough to try and flip her apron so as to throw the snake away from her, but didn't succeed, and then tried to untie the string of her apron, which instead of untying, got into a knot. Luckily she was able to break the apron string and throw apron and snake away. She then caught up a stick or some handy weapon and succeeded in killing the venomous reptile. —Green Ridge Enterprise.

It Saves the Children.

Mr. C. H. Shawen, Wellsville, Kan., says: "It is with pleasure that I speak of the good Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has done my family during the last fourteen years. In the most obstinate cases of summer complaint and diarrhoea among my children it acted as a charm, making it never necessary to call in a physician. I can truthfully say that in my judgment, based on years of experience, there is no medicine in the market that is its equal." For sale by Aug. Fleischmann.

To Summer Tourists.

The season is at hand when the man of affairs, the man who, through the long winter months, has devoted his best energies to the tasks and problems of the counting room, the office, the pulpit, or legislative halls; when the matron and the maid, wearied of the long season of social gaiety or confinement in the school or lecture room, betake themselves to the sea shore, the mountains, the country or the springs, in search of pleasure and rest. The Missouri, Kansas and Texas railway has placed on sale summer tourist tickets at very low rates, with long transit limits, good to return until October 1st or 15th. NON-UNION MEN.

Employees of Another Carnegie Mill Go Out.

BACKED BY THE AMALGAMATED.

Gov. Patterson Pulls Gen. Snowden Off His Perch—Soldiers Must For the Future Obey the Civil Authorities—Bitter Feeling Against Them.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 23.—The big steel mill at Duquesne is quiet and the 750 employees are out on a strike in sympathy with the locked out men at Homestead.

At 6 o'clock last evening all the workmen from the skilled men down to laborers left the mill determined not to return to work until the Homestead matter shall have been adjusted and the Amalgamated association recognized by the Carnegie Steel Co. The strike was a surprise because until recently the Duquesne has been a non-union mill. Within the past two weeks the Amalgamated association organized a lodge here and the strike is said to be backed by that powerful labor organization. A large meeting was held yesterday evening at which addresses were made to the strikers by one of the Amalgamated association. The men claim the Duquesne is one of the most important mills owned by the Carnegie company and that being shut down will be a serious blow to the firm.

Civil Authorities in Control.
HOMESTEAD, Pa., July 23.—The Pennsylvania militia were last night taught their proper place. It was a stern lesson, administered by Gov. Pattison personally. At the governor's suggestion a body of police officers in the persons of deputy sheriffs were placed throughout the borough of Homestead to supplant the unlimited military control that had been gradually established. The soldiers are now to aid the civil authorities, and not to be their superior. The sheriff of the county, or his representatives, are to be the ones to say when the danger point has been reached by assemblages of citizens, the men in uniform with guns in their hands being no longer to constitute themselves at will judge, jury and executioners.

The deputy sheriffs installed last evening number sixteen in all, and in Sheriff McCleary's absence are directed by Chief Deputy Brady, who is authorized to call in the military to the fullest extent to preserve order and maintain the peace.

Gen. Snowden admitted that he was aware the installations of the sheriff's representatives was Gov. Pattison's own suggestion. The general declined to define where the respective line of authority of the military and deputy sheriffs lay and refused to discuss the reasons for the change in the situation. He denied emphatically that any difference existed between himself and Gov. Pattison.

Bitter Feeling Against Soldiers.
HOMESTEAD, Pa., July 23.—The soldiers were more vigorous yesterday than usual in clearing the streets. Crowds were not permitted to gather anywhere and in some cases loiterers on the sidewalk were rather roughly crowded away and consequently some other bitter feelings were developed among the striking men. Indeed, the complete change in the attitude of the town toward the camp was more plainly shown yesterday than heretofore. No attempt to speak to any of the soldiers was made by any of the citizens. On the contrary, the militia were regarded with gloomy silence or with suppressed oaths. The women were even more bitter than the men in their language about the troops, and a practical boycott was established among the more radical of the strikers.

COKE WORKERS MOVING.
Scrious Extension of the Homestead Strike—Loyalty Alarmed.
PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 23.—The sympathetic strike movement among the workmen in the employ of the Carnegie company is assuming rather alarming proportions, and if rumors now current prove correct the strike will prove one of the most aggressive in the history of strikes in the world. The latest branch of labor to take active part in the movement in aid of the Homestead locked out men and the Amalgamated association is the coke workers and miners in the works operated by the company. Reports come from the Frick regions that missionaries have been sent among these men, and are making efforts to induce them to come out in a body. This, if successful, would shut off the supply of coke for the blast furnaces and would compel a suspension. What progress has been made is not known, but the leaders say the movement is meeting with great encouragement. A leading man among the Connellsville coke workers, who was in Pittsburgh yesterday, said the sympathies of the men in that region were with the Homestead strikers, and that this sympathy was being crystallized into a more material form.

When this was stated to Secretary Lovejoy he said:
"This is the first intimation that I have had that such a move was contemplated, and if made of course it would be a serious matter."
Dashed Down Grade.
SALT LAKE CITY, U. T., July 23.—A freight train on the Rio Grande & Western broke in two near Soldier Summit and the rear half dashed down grade at frightful speed. The caboose jumped the track and other cars followed. Conductor J. W. Harper had his thigh broken, his shoulder dislocated and sustained concussion of the brain and internal injuries. Brakeman Wing was torn to pieces and instantly killed.

Gov. Toole, of Montana, refused to allow Idaho and federal troops to pursue fugitives from the Coeur d'Alene country.

PINKERTONS' STATEMENT.

The Brothers Before the House Investigating Committee.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—The Pinkerton brothers were given an opportunity this morning to explain and defend the working of their system by the special committee of the house committee on the judiciary, which has been engaged in an investigation of the labor troubles at Homestead and of the operations of the Pinkerton system.

Robert Pinkerton first took the stand and laid before the committee a statement that had been prepared. This recounted the founding of the Pinkerton agency in 1850, and went through its history. When first requested to send watchmen to protect the Homestead plant of the Carnegie company, the Pinkertons refused to do so unless the men should be sworn in as deputy sheriffs before going to Homestead.

"We were then assured," runs the statement, "that the sheriff of Allegheny county knew our men were going to Homestead to guard the property of the company and protect its workmen; that the sheriff had promised immediately upon any outbreak to deputize all our watchmen as sheriff deputies if it became necessary for the protection of life and property. On that condition only did we consent to furnish about 300 watchmen. A large number of these men were our regular employees who could be thoroughly trusted for integrity, prudence and sobriety. The remainder were men whom we employed from time to time or who were known and recommended to us."

The hearing of the surrendered Pinkerton watchmen is dwelt upon and robbery is charged upon the strikers. The clubbing of Connors and the killing of Edwards are referred to and the statement continues: "The acts of the strikers after our men surrendered would be a disgrace to savages. Yet, because done in the name of organized American labor, sympathy if not encouragement is shown for such deeds by part of the press and by political demagogues. We do not shrink responsibility for any of our acts in this or any other strike. The coming murder trials ought to bring out the truth. Our actions will then be shown to have been legal."

The Mollie Maguires, the Chicago Stove Co.'s strike, the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy strike and others were referred to in detail as bases for the statement that "every large strike has shown that these labor organizations will murder and destroy property out of sheer wantonness and revenge. It was morally certain from the threats of men themselves, that the strikers at Homestead would resort to similar violence and attempt to destroy the property of the Carnegie company if any attempt were made to supply their places by non-union men."

In closing, the statement holds that the Pinkertons had a right to employ and send men to Homestead to act as watchmen; that if they were attacked they had the right to kill if absolutely necessary for self defense; that they had the right to bear arms on the premises of the Carnegie company in order to protect life and property whether or not they were deputized by the sheriff of Allegheny county; that they had the right to ship arms from Chicago to the Carnegie yards at Homestead for the purpose of arming the men if and after they were deputized by the sheriff.

LYNCHERS RELEASED.

The Taney County Tragedy Ends in a Farce.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., July 23.—All the Taney county lynchings who shot and killed Deputy Sheriff George T. Williams and hanged John Wesley Bright, his insane prisoner, at Forsythe on March 12 last are now free.

In the circuit court of Taney county at Forsythe the cases of the twelve men were called and Judge Hubbard overruled the motion of the state for a continuance, whereupon Prosecuting Attorney J. L. Davis and C. B. Sharp, his assistant, entered nolle prosequis and the prisoners, who have been in jail since their arrest last May, were set at liberty.

It is said that this action was on account of the fact that the state could not get its witnesses and that the court, sheriff and twenty-four of the forty men summoned from which the jury was to be selected were all former members of the Bald Knobbers' organization of Taney county and in sympathy with defendants so that it was impossible to secure a conviction under existing circumstances.

It is also reported that the prosecution will, after the next election when a new judge is on the bench and another sheriff has been elected by the people, secure the indictment of all the accused and convict them of the crime with which they are charged. One of the officers said that the state had plenty of evidence to convict all the men just as soon as the witnesses could be gotten into court to testify.

CONSUL IN DISGRACE.

The American Consul at Copenhagen Under Arrest.

COPENHAGEN, July 23.—The arrest of Henry R. Ryder, the American consul here, was due to a complaint made against him by a family residing on the island of Amager.

The members of this family inherited $1,000 which should have been paid over by Mr. Ryder. Mr. Ryder insists that he has paid over the amount.

The heirs, on the contrary, assert that they received only $500, and that they signed the receipt without knowing its contents.

Mr. Ryder is further suspected of embezzling sums of money which were forwarded by the United States government to Danish officers for certain services which they had rendered.

Ed Noland Keeping Books.

JEFFERSON CITY, July 23.—Ex-State Treasurer Ed T. Noland this morning delivered himself up to Warden Morrison and was at once clothed in a suit of stripes and assigned to work as bookkeeper in the state clothing department.

AN IMPROVEMENT.

Trade Prospects Decidedly of a Happy Cast.

R. G. DUN & CO.'S REVIEW.

No Doubt of Good Crops Generally—The Homestead Strike Brightens Other Iron Producing Points—Imports Increase.

NEW YORK, July 23.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: There is a distinct improvement not only in transactions in comparison with the same time last year, but also in prospects for the coming season. Prospects of spring wheat are remarkably good and reports from many of the states surpass all expectation. Wheat has risen 24 cents in spite of western receipts amounting to 3,135,000 bushels in three days against export of 908,000 bushels. Oats also rose 1 cent and pork products a shade and corn was advanced 1 1/2 cents.

In coffee there was a slight advance and in oil a fractional decline. But in the cotton market a decline of a sixteenth occurred with sales of 500,000 bales in a week. Business in dry goods at Boston is active, with liberal western orders. Cotton mills are actively employed and orders will keep the woolen mills crowded for some time to come, while the boot and shoe makers are full, the rubber works busy, leather firm and wool freely bought by manufacturers, sales reaching 5,400,000 pounds for the week. At Philadelphia trade in most lines is fair, but more firm in manufactured iron, while wool sales are large and the grocery trade is excellent for the season. Manufactured iron is stiffened at Pittsburgh by the closing of many mills and the works at Cleveland are pushed beyond their capacity with some advance in structural iron. Trade there is better than last year. The clothing trade at Cincinnati increases and the trade in shoes improves.

In all leading lines trade exceeds last year's at Chicago and prospects for maturing collections are very healthy. Receipts of wheat and corn fall short this week, but the usual large increase appears in cured meats, hogs and cattle with receipts of flour double of oats three times, and of barley and rye four times last year's.

At Milwaukee trade is satisfactory. From Minnesota reports indicate a repetition of last year's great crop. At St. Paul trade is quiet and at Duluth the tone of lumber, building materials and flour was never more satisfactory.

At St. Louis trade is fair. Receipts of cattle are liberal at Kansas City and trade fairly good. At Omaha general trade is excellent. At Denver trade is very good and at Memphis fair, but at other southern points dullness appears. Rain is reported to have slightly affected cotton. Considerable improvement is seen in New Orleans, though sugar is strong and price firm. Southern sales depress the price of pig iron, but bar, plates and structural iron are very active and higher. Lake copper is weak, with large sales at 11 1/2 cents. Tin is lower at 20 1/2 cents and lead at 4 1/2 cents, with pressure to sell. A further advance in anthracite coal is proposed, but soft coal has sold at $2 at Philadelphia. The stock market has been little affected by the vote of the Burlington & Quincy to withdraw from the Western Traffic association, for fine crop prospects and the coming adjournment of congress gives strong operators a basis for a successful campaign against the shorts. Money is unusually plenty. Merchandise exports in three weeks of July are one-half of 1 per cent. larger than last year, while in imports a large increase appears.

SEVERE RATE CUTTING.

The Santa Fe Uses the Knife on Knights Templar Tickets.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 23.—The passenger rate situation is in a most perilous state. The news published that the Santa Fe had put in a $12 rate from Chicago for the Knights Templar convalescence at Denver, was received here with the utmost surprise, and was even doubted by nearly every passenger agent in the city. Subsequent developments served to confirm the earlier reports, and then later news was watched for with much interest.

The rate was not only threatened by the Santa Fe in Chicago, but advertised in the St. Louis papers, the Frisco offering to sell tickets not only good for the round trip to Denver for $12, but, and what was more startling still, good to return to Chicago.

In cutting the Knights Templar rate the Santa Fe certainly will upset the Knights of Pythias rate. From every railroad town in the United States a one fare round trip rate has been made for the encampment at Kansas City next month, and that means thousands upon thousands of visitors, but put a rate in effect proportionately as low as that offered by the Santa Fe to Denver, and the attendance here would be almost double.

Severe Storms.

NEW YORK, July 23.—Severe thunder storms with wind and rain visited this state and portions of New England and Pennsylvania. So continuous were the flashes of lightning that the heavens were illuminated almost to the brightness of day. An almost total prostration of telegraphic communication followed in the wake of the furious elements.

Capt. Ewing Dead.

THAYER, Kan., July 23.—Capt. Chatham T. Ewing died at this place yesterday from nerve exhaustion. He has been a resident of Thayer for eleven years. He served with distinction during the late war.

Clearing house returns for the week ended July 22 showed an average increase of 12 1/2 compared with the corresponding week of last year. In New York the increase was 13.0.

THE CONGRESS.

The Senate Passes the House Retaliation Bill—Adjournment Unsettled.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—After some ineffective talk on the Homestead matter the senate yesterday continued the debate on the anti-opium bill, Mr. White, of Louisiana, concluding his speech against the measure. He directed his attention especially to the effect of the bill on the cotton interests and his remarks and statistics stirred up the senators from the other cotton states, several of whom intimated an intention of replying at some future date.

The house bill providing for retaliation against Canada in the matter of the Welland canal was taken up and unanimously passed.

THE HOUSE.
The question of adjournment is still unsettled, and if no better progress is made with the disputed items on the two remaining appropriation bills than was the case yesterday the idea of August will find congress still in session. The discussion of the senate amendments to the general deficiency bill occupied the entire session yesterday and none of them were agreed to. The item of payments to the Pacific railroads was discussed for over an hour, and that to the widows and legal heirs of deceased members of the present house $5,000, as inserted by the senate, was amended on motion of Mr. Hayes, democrat, of Iowa, so that they shall receive the balance of the salary for the whole congress.

The French spoliation claims were debated for an hour, and pending further discussion, the house at 5 o'clock took a recess until 8 o'clock for the consideration of pension bills.

ATROCIOUS WORK.

Barbarity of Idaho Strikers to Non-Union Men.

WALLACE, Id., July 23.—The details of the Mission massacre show one of the most horrible butcheries that ever happened in the Coeur d'Alene. They fully justify reports hitherto sent out.

Lieut. Smith left Wardner on Tuesday with a force to make a thorough examination of the grounds. He did not have time to complete his work, but reported the finding of a large spot on a hillside in the Fourth of July canyon burned over, and said the ashes were thought to be from human bodies cremated, it is supposed by placing them on pitch logs.

An officer in charge here said that the authorities had positive evidence in their possession that would substantiate the charges of cruelty and barbarity practiced on defenseless non-union men that were run out from Gem and Lander at Mission on that fatal Tuesday. He said he had in prison here some of the men who conceived and aided in carrying into execution this outrage and promised access to papers and facts as soon as it were prudent to give them.

THE DALTONS SEEN.

Rumor Connects Them With a Party of Men on Big Cabin Switch.

VINITA, I. T., July 23.—Interest in the train robbery was revived yesterday by a report sent from Big Cabin switch, eight miles below, that the Daltons were seen moving in the direction of this city. The basis of the rumor is that nine armed men rode up to the house of a man named Woods, three miles east of Big Cabin about sunset Thursday evening and inquired the way to Vinita. It was assumed that these were the outlaws and that they were coming to Vinita with the intention of making a raid upon the bank. Word was sent to the cashier by the first freight train. As the bank safe is protected by a time lock there is little danger of loss, but still Vinita doesn't desire the presence of the Dalton gang while they are on a war footing.

Sangir Horror Confirmed.

THE HAGUE, July 23.—Official telegrams received to-day confirm the recent accounts of the awful destruction caused on Great Sangir island, belonging to Holland, by a volcanic eruption on July 17. These later advices are to the effect that the whole northwestern portion of the island was destroyed and that 2,000 of the inhabitants were killed. There were no Europeans among the victims.

Rich Strike at Leadville.

LEADVILLE, Col., July 23.—One of the finest strikes of mineral made here for some time occurred yesterday at the Dorris property. Shipments have been going on for some time and small profits made, but a seven foot body of lead carbonates was opened up. A good average assay of 626 ounces of silver and 56 ounces of gold was returned.

SHI in a Deadlock.

BATESVILLE, Ark., July 23.—The democratic convention here is still in a deadlock. Two hundred and fifty-one ballots show absolutely no change in the voting. The deadlock will probably continue indefinitely.

The government will reimburse the bondsmen of Internal Revenue Collector Walker, of the Sixth Missouri district, in the sum of $4,738.80, representing stamps stolen from his office.

The treasury at Washington now contains $112,000,000 in free gold, and the gold balance is increasing.

ALICE MITCHELL.

Strange Testimony of Her Victim's Brother-in-Law.

THE INFATUATION OF TWO GIRLS.

Alice Mitchell to Marry Freda Ward and Support Her by Working—The Perverted Love Ends in Murder.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 23.—There is no abatement, notwithstanding the intense heat, in the attendance upon and interest manifested in the Alice Mitchell case.

The first witness called was Miss Addie Mitchell. She seemed to feel her sister's position very keenly and to realize the humiliation inevitably attendant upon it. Her testimony was in the main purely cumulative of that offered previously as to Alice's disposition, penchant for boyish sports, headaches, nose bleeds and her demeanor at the time of and since the tragedy. The cigar box frequently referred to, which contained Alice's letters and love tokens, was introduced and identified by the witness. She knew of the intimacy between Alice and Freda Ward and had read the letter from Mrs. Volkmar—Freda's sister—to her mother breaking off the two girls' friendship. The remainder of her testimony was merely corroborative of that previously given by the members of the Mitchell family.

James Johnson, brother of Lillie, testified that he had known Alice Mitchell for two years and as far as he could judge she had always displayed a most decided aversion to the society of gentlemen.

HART HONORED.

He is Presented With a Handsome Portrait of Dalton.

Every visitor to the Dalton headquarters at Jefferson City noticed a very fine crayon portrait of Col. Dalton, elegantly framed, hanging in a conspicuous position.

After the nominations a large number of Col. Dalton's friends met in the headquarters to say farewell to their friend. Many of these friends requested the portrait above referred to as a memento of the occasion.

In answer to these requests Col. Dalton spoke most feelingly, telling of the gratitude he felt toward the friends who had stood by him so loyally. He wished he had a portrait to present to every one of them, but as he had only the one he was compelled to decide upon whom to bestow it, and in view of all the circumstances of the campaign he felt that his friends would feel that he was only giving honor where honor was due when he presented the portrait to that true friend and zealous supporter, V. P. Hart, of Sedalia.

Mr. Hart responded with a most eloquent tribute to the character of Col. Dalton and assured him and his friends that the portrait shall hang in the best room in his house.

Mr. Hart was a most earnest supporter of Col. Dalton, but in conversation with a DEMOCRAT reporter after the nomination was made he had nothing but the kindest words for Dalton in the canvass. Mr. Hart did as much as any other man in the state for Dalton, and he will be found now foremost in the fight for Stone and the whole democratic ticket.

Cheap Homes for Millions.

In order to meet the constantly growing demands which come from every quarter of the north, east and west, for reduced rates, to enable the farmer, the emigrant and the capitalist to visit the southwest, and particularly Texas, the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railway have determined to sell tickets on August 30th, September 27th and October 25th, from points in the north, east and west to all points in the state of Texas, at the extremely low rate of One Fare for the Round Trip, good to return 20 days from date of sale.

The reports which come from Texas of the prodigious prospective yields in the crops for the present season, as well as those for several previous years, together with the severity of the winters in the northern and western states for several years past, will induce many to locate on the sun-kissed prairies of this favored land during the coming fall. Now is your opportunity, grasp it while it is yet within your reach.

Editor Kelly's Position.

OFFICE OF SENTINEL,
SEDALIA, Mo., July 23, 1892.

DEAR SIR:—Referring to a letter of H. Williams in last evening's DEMOCRAT, headed "Not Satisfactory," I would like to ask whether there is anything that will satisfy the poor little fellow. All I have to say and all I intend to say, is simply a rehearsal of my letter of the 20th, and if Williams is not satisfied he will have to remain dissatisfied. I have said, and do now say it again for all men to read it in print, that on the question of the liquor traffic (exclusively) I am a prohibitionist, but on all other public issues I am a republican, as I stated in my letter the other evening. I have always been a republican since I came to this country and expect to be. I am in nowise undecided as to my political standing.

A few weeks ago I met in Sedalia a gentleman from Green Ridge, while walking down Ohio street with one of the former editors of the Sentinel. On informing the gentleman that I had purchased the Sentinel, he said: "Bro. Kelly, I believe, is a strong prohibitionist." My reply was: "Yes, on the question of temperance." Nothing was said on any other political issue. It is false and a libel on me, that I ever worked in connection with any third party movement in Barton county. Write again, "Williams," and perhaps you can learn something else. Mr. Williams must have read my letter of the 20th with his spectacles off, for I plainly stated there what kind of a paper the public could expect; viz, a republican paper. What church I belong to has nothing to do with anybody, and has nothing to do with the question at issue. However, I am not ashamed of the church I represent. If Williams will call up to the Sentinel office and get acquainted, we will give him a copy of our paper free of charge.

Poor Williams and the prohibition party will have to go one vote short next November, as I am not a citizen of the United States and therefore cannot oblige the sarcastic angels. Call and see us, Mr. Williams.

Respectfully,
J. W. KELLY,
Ed. Sentinel.

At the Races.

From the Chicago Globe.

The girl chappie is a feature of the races quite too weird and unique to be dismissed with passing mention. Hergown is tailor made, rough in material, and precise in cut; her box coat is dazzling light in color, very fringy in its raw edges, very masculine in cut and closed with important horn buttons. In the lapel of its notched collar is worn a boutonniere of generous proportions and vivid color, and from a button just below it dangles her check of admission to the course. Her gloves of heavy dogskin and her Derby hat she buys of the man tailor; her necktie and collar, too are selected from masculine accouterments. In the side pockets of her coats she carries a betting book, and the entries are not all on the wrong side by any means, even if the book is silver mounted. She looks wisely through her monocle at the sporting man of whom she is seeking points, and the reason she wins is probably that, womanlike, she bets on the horses he has not recommended as possible winners. She drives her own trap to the course and takes in the races like one of the boys, with this difference: she goes home sober even if she backs the wrong horse.

Another Hotel.

The Le Grand Hotel on Lamine street will be re-opened on Monday next by R. L. Blair. Everything will be first class and gilt edge. It will be the only hotel in the city that will have a Delmonico restaurant in connection with it. Everything will be served as ordered. Nothing will be left undone to keep the LeGrand in the lead, and we bespeak a good patronage and a success for Mr. Blair. The office will be under the supervision of Senator Richardson.

OBSERVATIONS.

BY PETRUCHIO.

Cranks.

It will be readily admitted that the subject of these observations is a prolific one. I do not know of one which will bear a greater variety of views, or will excite a more common interest.

There are so many cranks that I hardly know where to begin. I'm a bit of a crank myself, but as I know that I must have been pretty freely voted so already, and that nearly every voter will have a reason different from that entertained by I will take no chances of stirring up strife by giving my own reasons for admitting myself a crank.

There are musical cranks. There is no species of the animal much worse than the musical crank. Now, I like music, and when I get up to sing I feel greatly cheered by the pleasure I am about to confer; but when I wake up in the morning at five o'clock to the symphonies of a negro chanting "Annie Rooney," as I did the other morning at a health resort, I am attacked with bilious fever at once, and it flies to my head.

Then there are cranks who love monkeys. I have no such love, neither for the human nor natural variety. Summoned from my sweet rest by the voice of the black demon who was beau to "Annie Rooney," I had hardly composed myself to sleep until I was made aware of some living creature moving about my room. Rousing cautiously and securing a good grip on my Smith & Wesson, I made up my mind to perforate the burglar, ere I had become aware that it was daylight. Then I saw the black head of a tame monkey poke itself above the bed covering and survey the situation. He didn't like my looks. He slid down the post of my bed and slid up the post of my companions bed. In view of the sequence I will omit the the name of my companion.

When the intruder saw my companion gazing at him there was a pleased monkey. He just felt right at home. He gambled over the bed, hopped to the floor, climbed on the dresser, took possession of one of the cuffs of my friend and at once proceeded to adjust it over his head to act as a sort of dude. But this familiarity proved too much for my friend, and the monkey was summarily bounced out of the window from whence he came. But there was no more sleep for us, thanks to two kinds of cranks found at health resorts.

The religious crank is one of the worst. He is sure every other man is en route to certain hades. In order to relieve the other fellow from such distress as might result from this knowledge he tells him he is not sure that the speaker himself, good as he is, will escape perdition, but that he is struggling to get to heaven.

The religious crank is a christian purely for what there is in it. He is good that he may escape hell. He invests a certain amount of time, money and effort in the Lord's work on speculation, that he may draw the prize ticket which is to take him to heaven. He's the long faced christian, and he's always struggling. He makes me very tired.

Why can't people be good because it is good to be so. Why can't they serve God because He is good, and offers an opportunity to show your gratitude for His mercies and a service that gives you a field in which to grow large and broad and liberal.

Cranks will not stand much of a show in heaven. And if religious cranks get to heaven I know a number of people who do not want to go there, unless there are separate apartments for the cranks and the other people.

Some people actually hold out temptations to the cupidity of man to induce him to cast his lot with the followers of Christ, and if they are not successful in that direction why then they try frightening 'em into the kingdom. Such a policy may get a little money and a small addition to members, but it don't pay in the end. A man who is honest because he fears the law is not a safe citizen. The man who speculates in the work of religion upon a financial basis is not much of an example of Christ's teachings.

I may be more of a crank than I think, but I believe that the man who most nearly attains the divine character is he who thinks not of results, who thinks not of present or final rewards, but addresses himself to the task of lightening such burdens as he may, relieving those distresses within his reach, living daily the simple unostentatious life of one who is willing to do his work as it comes to him, with neither fear of punishment nor hope of reward, except, indeed, such reward as logically follows a noble action.

Some of the Parsons boys are inquisitive enough to ask why Jolly J. W. Murphy of Sedalia has such a liking for their town. Of course there might be a handsome young lady as the attraction, but the boys were "scared to say."

A. C. Fredicks, of Kingman, Kas., is in the city to-day taking to old friends and wondering how in the world Sedalia could have improved so much. He was formerly a well known north end M., K. & T. passenger conductor.

Civil Engineer Thurston stated this morning that it was the intention of the M., K. & T. to let the contract to-day for the grading of the ground prior to building the foundation of the new freight house. The work on all buildings will be gradually commenced and the company proposes to see that its accommodations will be of the best. The coal chute tracks will also be finished in a few days.

A NEW MISSOURI ROAD.

A Short Extension That May Cause Quite a Difference With the M., K. & T.

The Hannibal Journal of yesterday says: "The Perry extension of the St. Louis, Hannibal and Kansas City railway, (short line) is now ready for travel and the new time card, which is in the hands of the printer, will be ready for distribution tomorrow. The card will go into effect at noon Sunday, but as no trains are run on that road on the Sabbath day, the first train for passengers will be run on Monday."

For the present the management will run two trains each way every day, a freight and a passenger train, the latter to be made up of an engine, baggage car and a coach, and if business will justify another coach will be added. Express and mail matter will be handled also, the former by the Pacific company, which now handles all express matter on the Short Line. The contract for the transportation of the mail has not been made as yet, but Superintendent Lindsay has communicated with the railway officials and the arrangements will probably be made before the first train starts.

The road runs through one of the most fertile sections in the state of Missouri, and is densely populated. Center and Perry have wide-awake citizens who have subscribed liberally to the purchasing of the right-of-way through that section of the country. These cities are now connected with Hannibal by railroad and we hope that the good feeling which has heretofore existed between those neighboring cities and Hannibal will be increased to a considerable extent.

The road bed upon which the present extension is laid was constructed over twenty years ago under the management of the C., B. & Q. It traversed Marion, Ralls and Audrain counties, and was to cross the Missouri River at Arrow Rock on its way to Kansas City. The grading was finished, the stone culverts placed in position, the bridges built and a few ties laid. Extensive wrangling and litigation ensued and in the almost quarter of a century that has followed, the rotting bridges and the broken stonework have been a shameful monument to the stupidity of the men who were responsible for it. An immense railroad debt was foisted upon Ralls county and about nine years ago the county judges were jailed for refusing to act in the matter. The present extension is 30 miles in length.

The important changes that would result from a further extension of this line may be seen from the following clipping from the Moberly Monitor: "Once more we call attention to the short line extension to Perry, Ralls county, and venture to add some comments on it with the hope that they may reach the eye of some one directly or indirectly interested in the matter. We see it stated that the cars are running on the road to Perry, and it is nothing but natural that this road will look towards getting west or southwest so as to connect this end with the rest of the world. Now, this short line road occupies, or uses, about twenty-five miles of the Wabash road, if we mistake not, from Gilmore into St. Louis. Now, if the Wabash company could be induced to build from Perry to Moberly, that would give them about an even number of miles of the short line to use, to get

From here on to their own track at Hannibal again, thus making a continuous trunk line from Chicago to Kansas City, complete. It would be as short as other competing lines and would pass over a country unsurpassed for fertility of soil and natural grading advantages, besides the Wabash would then have a direct route for both passenger and freight, now it leaves the M., K. & T. for the passenger traffic only. The new road would have a local trade, equal to the C. & A., or the St. Louis part of the Wabash, and better than the M., K. and T., because of the good level wagon roads adjacent thereto. Sixty miles and the Wabash has a through line from Kansas City to Chicago.

The Thief Had Scrre.

Baggage man G. D. Provost is kicking himself over the loss of a pair of pants and a valuable meerschaum pipe which were stolen from the car at Moberly last night. Luckily, the genial "smasher" had another pair, so he was not left out in the cold. The pipe was valued very much, as it was an unusually fine one and had been presented to him.

A SHORT HISTORY

Of the Miner Symptomatic Gold Treatment and Some of the Secrets of its Unrivalled Success.

The Miner treatment is not an experiment, but the outgrowth of a complete and careful research, combined with years of experience. Centuries ago Paracelsus discovered a golden light and proclaimed to the world that the great eradicating agent for all hereditary taints would be found in gold, the king of metals. Ever since it has been demonstrated to the world that alcoholism is a curable disease, there has existed much of skepticism and prejudice, coming not only from the general public, but from the medical fraternity as well. It has taken time to overcome these obstacles. There was also need for improvement in the remedies used, and a more scientific system for their administration. In formulating our treatment, Symptomatic Gold Treatment these and many other most needed requisites for a safe and scientific course of treatment have been successfully met.

After visiting numerous institutions established for the treatment and cure of diseases in question, and upon close investigation we are frank to admit that there is a marked similarity in all treatments. It is not our intention to speak disparagingly of any who may, either by word or deed, help on this grand work. Yet, as we have already indicated, to our minds, the only safe and reliable treatment is that which is known and admits of variation by the physician in charge. Then and only then is he prepared to meet complications and suit his treatment to the changing conditions of the patient, as in pneumonia, typhoid fever, or any other disease.

Therefore, in presenting to you our Symptomatic Gold Treatment, we beg you to consider it thoughtfully, and should it recommend itself to your best judgment we shall be pleased to have you investigate our work, either in your own interest or in behalf of your friends and suffering humanity.
